

I Will...

1. “Living Water”

by Kristyn Getty and Ed Cash

This song speaks of Jesus as the living water that refreshes and sustains us, encouraging us to spread his life-giving presence to others. It's perfect for reflecting on how faith and blessings flow through us and into the lives of others.

Key lyrics:

“Living water, deep within me, saturate my soul / Like a river, break the levee, let it overflow.”

2. “Let It Be Jesus”

---

by Christy Nockels

While this song is more about Jesus being the centre of our lives, it can easily tie into the theme of leaving a legacy of faith.

When our lives are focused on Christ, his grace flows through us to bless others.

Key lyrics:

“Let it be Jesus, from the rising of the sun / Let it be Jesus, when all is said and done.”

3. “The Blessing”

---

by Kari Jobe and Cody Carnes

This song is based on the priestly blessing from Numbers 6: 24-26, asking for God’s favour and blessings on future generations. The lyrics reflect the idea of God’s love and blessings flowing from one generation to the next.

Key lyrics:

“May his favour be upon you, and a thousand generations / And your family and your children, and their children, and their children.”

4. “Oceans (Where Feet May Fail)”

by Hillsong UNITED

Although the song primarily speaks about trusting God in the depths of uncertainty, the ocean imagery connects well with the metaphor of water and faith flowing through generations. It's about stepping into the unknown, trusting God's legacy in your life.

Key lyrics:

“Spirit lead me where my trust is without borders
/ Let me walk upon the waters, wherever you would call me.”

5. “Imela”

---

by Nathaniel Bassey

This song encourages us to be thankful for the goodness and grace of God.

Key lyrics:

“Imela Imela, Okaka, Onyekeruwa”
